WINDUP OF CONGRESS.

Important Legislation to Be Disposed of During the Present Week.

A CLEAR DECK IN THE LOWER HOUSE.

Senate to Wrestle With the Army and Other Appropriation Bills—Conference Reports Also to Be Considered.

Washington, Feb. 25.—The army appropriation bill will receive the attention of the senate during the early part of the week, and when it is disposed of another appropriation bill will be taken up. It is probable that the army bill will be debated at length, especially upon the Philippine amendment and the amendment relating to Cuba, if the latter is introduced as is proposed. These amendments, or either of them, quite certainly will be made the basis of a number of speeches, as they will serve to open up the entire question of the relations of the United States to the islands. It is hoped that the sundry civil bill will be reported by the time the army bill is disposed of so that it may be taken up next. If it is not in shape to be considered by that time the river and harbor bill probably will receive attention. The general deficiency is likely to be the last of the appropriation bills acted on.

It is not believed that much general legislation will be accomplished during the week, but a great many private bills will be passed. The probabilities are all against getting up the Nicaragua canal bill.

Deck Cleared in the House.

Washington, Feb. 25.—The last week in the house will be mainly occupied with conference reports on the appropriation bills, and the other numerous measures now being fought over by the managers of the two houses. The last of the general appropriation bills went to the senate on Thursday, and the house has its decks pretty well cleared for the final contests with the senate. The last six days of the session are suspension days, and it is always possible to bring the house to a vote on any proposition under a motion to suspend the rules, which provide for only 20 minutes' debate upon a side.

Cuban Amendment.

Washington, Feb. 25.—There have been several conferences of senators looking to an amicable understanding on the Cuban question so that an extra session may be avoided. As a result it is said to be probable that an amendment dealing with our relations with Cuba will be presented in the senate during the day, when the army appropriation bill is taken up. The exact phraseology of the amendment, it is said, has not been definitely settled as yet, but the conferences have made it likely that the opposing parties in the senate will get together.

Russia to Strike at Trusts.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 25.—Responsible journals assert that the Russian officials threaten trust-made European and American products, which are sold cheaper abroad than at home, with compensatory duties. They ignore as irrelevant the distinction between legislative and voluntary regulations of industries. The announcement of this doctrine opens up a wide field of speculation, apparently prefiguring a transformation of the discriminating duties against America into a general increase of duties on all articles which enter largely into the world's commerce and are the objects of the keenest competition. Russian industries would certainly welcome any excuse to increase the present high protection.

Famine in Russia.

Odessa, Feb. 25.—Several of the Russian provinces are suffering acutely from famine. In the governments of Kherson and Bessarabia tens of thousands are famishing. Amid the additional hardships of the severe winter hunger-typhus is rapidly spreading. In the northern and east Volga provinces the people for two months have been subsisting on roots, grasses and offal, and are now dying of sheer starvation.

Mexican Joan of Arc.

New York, Feb. 25.—Santa Teresa, the Mexican "Joan of Arc," who was accused of inciting the Yaquis to revolt and who later astonished the Pacific states with her alleged healing powers is in New York on her way to Europe, with the family of Charles Owens of San Francisco. Mr. Owens is associated in business with C. P. Rosencranz, whose little son she is said to have helped during a recent sickness. Mr. Owens is president of the Bear State Oil company.

THROUGH THE EARTH.

Nikola Tesla Will Not Send Messages Through the Air.

New York, Feb. 25.—Nikola Tesla says that the statement of James Gailbrath in London, that he was going to establish a receiving station for Mr. Tesla's wireless telegraphy system somewhere on the fortieth parallel was premature and unofficial.

Mr. Tesla says that he is not going to send his messages through the air but through the earth. His intention is to erect at some point in the city a very powerful "oscillator," which is an electrical contrivance of his own construction. At some point in Europe similar instruments will be erected. When the current of the "oscillators" is turned on the enormous voltage will take the shortest track to the instrument made to receive it. For long distances this "shortest track" will necessarily be through the earth, not over it.

Another Marine Disaster.

Port Townsend, Wash., Feb. 25.—An account of what may turn out to be another marine disaster and mysterious disappearance of a big steamship, while crossing the Pacific, is given by Captain Morris of the transport Port Albert, just arrived from quarantine. Captain Morris says that while in midocean his mate sighted a two-masted steamship ahead of the Port Albert two miles distant. The weather was hazy but it could be seen that the steamer was in the trough of the sea and laboring heavily. The sea was running high at the time and it was all that could be done to keep the Port Albert head on. The mate went below to get his glass so he could see the vessel but when he returned it was so foggy nothing could be seen. In less than half an hour the weather cleared but no vessel was visible. Both steamers were traveling in the same direction and Captain Morris expresses the opinion that the vessel must have foundered.

Trust Companies Combine.

New York, Feb. 25.—The announcement is made that the North American Trust company of New Jersey has taken over control of the Corporation Trust company of New Jersey and Corporation Trust company of New York, the Corporation Organization and Trust company of Chicago; the New Jersey Registration company of Boston and the Corporation Trust company of Maine, together with numerous minor companies. The undertaking involved the consolidation of companies with an estimated total capitalization of nearly $50,000,000.

Weekly Bank Statement.

New York, Feb. 25.—The weekly statement of averages of the associated banks shows: Loans $911,800,900, decrease, $2,882,100; deposits, $1,009,186,900, decrease $2,142,100; circulation, $31,215,900, increase, $66,400; legal tenders, $73,890,100, increase $1,418,800; specie, $192,953,300, decrease $260,100; reserve increase $1,694,275; surplus bank reserves in excess of legal requirements, Feb. 16, $14,546,675; total reserve $266,843,400, reserve required $252,296,725.

General Gordon's Pocketbook.

Chicago, Feb. 25.—The pocketbook containing a number of railroad passes, checks and other valuable papers in General John B. Gordon's overcoat stolen from the Grand Pacific hotel last week, reached the hotel under cover of a one cent wrapper and with 19 one cent postage due stamps pasted in the corner. Except for a small amount of paper money and a few checks, nothing apparently had been taken from the pocketbook.

Ultimatum of Lake Engineers.

Toledo, Feb. 25.—The Marine Engineers' Beneficial association of this city has ordered all its Toledo members not to go to work until the Lake Carriers' association complies with its demands for increased wages. This order will take effect in any port on the great lakes for the time being, and unless the demands for the engineers' association are complied with no boats shall be run next season.

Redmond Returned.

Omaha, Feb. 25.—Rhode Redmond, a former Omaha saloon keeper who was arrested in Kansas City as a suspect in the Cudahy kidnapping and released upon his promise to report to Chief of Police Donahue at Omaha, fulfilled his promise. Redmond convinced Donahue that he knew nothing about the case. Redmond said he was in Kansas City for the purpose of buying a saloon.

May Not Be Tried Again.

New York, Feb. 25.—District Attorney Philbin states that he has not yet decided whether Samuel J. Kennedy will be put on trial the third time for the murder of Dollie Reynolds, but a decision is expected by Monday. He will be guided by the weight of evidence brought forward.

FOR THE EXECUTIONS.

Preparations Finally Completed by the Chinese Officials at Peking.

HEADS TO BE LOPPED OFF TUESDAY.

Evacuation of the Capital Urged to Enable the Court to Return. Russia and Import Duties—Foreign News.

Peking, Feb. 25.—The full text of the imperial edict regarding punishments was sent to the ministers of the powers. The ministers regard the punishment edict as satisfactory. Chih Sin, former grand secretary, and Han Cheng Yu, son of the notorious Hsu Tung, will be publicly executed in Peking Tuesday. An edict has been promulgated suspending examinations at all points which were the scenes of outrages against foreigners.

It is intended to guard the men at the place of execution, so as to prevent suicide or escape. When official confirmation, duly certified by high officers of state, of the sentences of death upon the others shall have been received and these two have been executed, China will have practically complied with the terms demanded by the powers, as she has already agreed to issue edicts prepared by the ministers of the powers for the cessation of examinations, and regarding the responsibility of viceroys and governors.

Prince Chun, the emperor's brother, will soon go to Berlin to express China's regrets for the murder of Baron Von Ketteler. He says China has now accepted to the uttermost and also performed everything required by the powers, except the payment of the indemnities, the amount of which has not been decided. He thinks arrangements should be made for the evacuation of Peking in order to enable the court to return.

No official announcement has been made of the abandonment of the proposed expedition into the interior, but it is not likely that any further preparations will be made. The foreign envoys feel that the proposal was a master stroke and caused the settlement of what might have been a protracted affair.

Why the Coup Failed.

Paris, Feb. 25.—On the anniversary of the attempt at a coup d'etat by M. Paul De Roulede and Marcel Habert at the Neuilly barracks, on the occasion of the funeral of M. Faure, and also the anniversary of the sentence to five years' banishment imposed upon M. Marcel Habert, many of their sympathizers went to San Sebastian, where the two exiles are residing. M. De Roulede delivered a long address. He asserted that he and M. Marcel Habert were approached, on the night before the attempted coup, by an agent of the Duke of Orleans, who proposed that the duke should appear in the midst of the ranks in time to participate in the projected action. M. De Roulede replied that if any royalist, especially the Duke of Orleans, should attempt to take part, he (De Roulede) would be the first to turn the troops against him. On the following morning it was found that the arrangement of the troops had been so changed that the coup would fail; and he declares that the royalists effected this change when they learned that he would not aid their cause.

Edward Off to Germany.

London, Feb. 25.—King Edward has left Flushing for Cronberg. Owing to his desire to divest his visit of any official character he has declined Emperor William's invitation to stay at Homburg castle, and will be his sister's guest.

Killed in a Collision.

White Pigeon, Mich., Feb. 25.—In a headend collision between an engine and snow plow and a freight engine on the main line of the Lake Shore railroad near here Conductor Lewis Stears of Grand Rapids was instantly killed and brakeman William White of Three Rivers was fatally injured. Engineer Bock and brakeman Stauffer of Elkhart, Ind., and brakeman Allison of Milledgeburg, O., badly hurt.

Railway Smashup.

Bristol, Pa., Feb. 25.—A westbound train of empty passenger cars on the Pennsylvania railroad was run into by a "light" freight near here and a bad smashup of railroad property resulted. G. McCann, a railroad flagman was killed and Conductor Hengst and brakemen Johns and Nilan were injured but not seriously.

Arrived Dismasted.

San Diego, Cal., Feb. 25.—The long overdue ship Otto Geldemeister was towed in here entirely dismasted by the steamer Nome City.

DEADLOCK BROKEN.

John Mitchell Returned to the Senate From Oregon.

Salem, Or., Feb. 25.—John H. Mitchell was elected United States Senator to succeed John W. McBride, whose term expires on March 4 next. His election was accomplished by a combination of 35 Republicans with 11 Democrats, making 46 votes, the majority necessary to elect. The result was reached on the twenty-fifth ballot of the day and the forty-third of the session. The close of the long struggle was exciting. Mr. Mitchell has served three full terms in the United States senate from Oregon, having been elected the first time in 1873, when H. W. Corbett was his chief opponent.

Did Not Perish.

San Francisco, Feb. 25.—J. C. Holland, third officer of the Rio Janeiro, who was on the day of the disaster reported missing, has reported unharmed. After the Rio struck upon the reef Holland assisted Captain Ward in getting the passengers into the lifeboats. He and the captain walked aft together on the starboard side, and just as they reached the saloon the boat gave a lurch and disappeared beneath the water. Holland was carried down by the suction, but managed to secure hold of a life preserver, which assisted him to rise to the surface, but not until he had been almost strangled by the salt water.

Canned Meats and Sausages.

Washington, Feb. 25.—Commenting upon the German prohibition on the importation of canned meats and sausages, which has now gone into effect, Consul General Richard Guenther, at Frankfurt, in a report to the state department, calls attention to the fact that while a section of the meat inspection law contains the direct prohibition of these articles a proviso in another section allows the admission of other kinds of prepared meats if it is shown that there is no danger to human health in the manner of their production and preparation.

Adulteration of Coffee.

Cincinnati, Feb. 25.—Arbuckle Brothers of New York have petitioned Judge Thompson of the United States court for an injunction to restrain State Food Commissioner Blackburn in the course he has announced for the enforcement of the statute, which prohibits the adulteration of coffee by coating, polishing or powdering coffee grains so as to give them the appearance of better grade. The commissioner further ruled that it was not in compliance with the provisions of the law to label such articles "Compound."

Conger to Retire.

Washington, Feb. 25.—Edwin N. Conger, minister of the United States to China, will return soon on leave of absence. The strong probability is that he will not resume his diplomatic post in Peking. His successor may be W. W. Rockhill, director of the bureau of American republics and special commissioner in China, who has acted as Mr. Conger's adviser throughout the negotiations.

Italy's Poor in Distress.

Rome, Feb. 25.—In view of the increasing distress among the laboring classes at Poulies and of the threats of disorder, Signor Giolitti, the minister of the interior, is sending assistance. The cabinet, however, hopes to maintain order without force, and to avoid further trouble by the use of kindness and persuasion. Even at a short distance from Rome the misery of the people is assuming disquieting proportions.

Damaged by Fire.

Wausau, Wis., Feb. 25.—Fire in the Kikbusch block here did $60,000 damage. The total insurance will reach not more than $18,000. The chief losers were: Robert and Otto Kikbusch, owners of the building, about $30,000; Evonson, Builder & Company, clothiers, $12,000; L. A. Hyman, fruit and confectionery, damaged by water.

To View the Eclipse.

New York, Feb. 25.—On the North German Lloyd steamship Werra, which left for the Mediterranean, were two parties of tourists. The larger party was composed of clergymen and Bible students, bound for the Holy Land; the smaller party, of scientists, bound for Sumatra, to view the eclipse of the sun on May 17.

Pardoned By Odell.

New York, Feb. 25.—Latimer E. Jones, who 15 years ago startled financial circles by his vast enterprises, failed for many thousands and fled to South America and was later arrested in London on a charge of forgery and extradited to this country, has been pardoned by Governor Odell from Sing Sing, where he had been sentenced for five years and six months. He was convicted of forgery when he arrived in this city in 1897.

IN FLYING RETREAT

Dewet's Force Is Reported by General Kitchener's Official Dispatch.

INVASION OF CAPE COLONY FAILED.

Boers Vanished After a Tilt With Colonel Plumer's Column—Boer's Army Also Disorganized. Casualty List.

London, Feb. 25.—The war office has received the following dispatch from Lord Kitchener, dated at Middleburg, Transvaal: "French reports from Piet Retief, Feb. 22, that the result of the columns sweeping the country east is that the Boers are retreating in scattered and disorganized parties to the number of some 5,000, in front of him. Amsterdam and Piet Retief have been occupied, and troops are protecting the Swazi frontier. French will push on, but is much hampered by the continuous heavy rains. Plumer reports that Colonel Owen captured Dewet's 15 pounder and pom-pom Feb. 23, as well as 53 prisoners and a quantity of ammunition. We had no casualties. Enemy in full retreat and dispersing, being vigorously pursued. Dewet's attempt to invade Cape Colony evidently completely failed."

Boer and British Losses.

London, Feb. 25.—Lord Kitchener reports as follows: "Summary of total losses inflicted upon the enemy up to Feb. 16: Boers known to have been killed and wounded in action, 292; taken prisoners, 56; surrendered, 183; one 15 pounder gun, 462 rifles, 160,000 rounds of small ammunition, 5,500 horses, 70 mules, 3,530 trek oxen, 18,700 cattle, 155,400 sheep and 1,070 wagons and carts captured. Our casualties: Five officers and 41 men killed, and four officers and 108 men wounded. I regret to say that Major Howard, a very gallant officer of the Canadian scouts, was killed Feb. 17."

Dewet's Force Scattered.

Cape Town, Feb. 25.—Colonel Plumer engaged General Dewet near Dilsfontein, on the south bank of the Orange river, capturing a gun and a pom-pom, and taking 50 prisoners. The Boers were scattered and are being pursued by Colonel Plumer. It is reported that General Dewet escaped to the opposite bank in a boat and is now fleeing with a handful of followers. It is reported from a Boer source at Zee-rust that General Delarey has been captured.

Steyn's Alleged Address.

London, Feb. 25.—The Daily Telegraph publishes the following from De Aar, dated Feb. 24: "Mr. Steyn, addressing the Boers, told them they must all shift for themselves, returning to Orange River colony as best they could. He and General Dewet took 300 of the best horses with which to escape."

Victims of Plague.

Cape Town, Feb. 25.—A white child died here of bubonic plague, and three white children have been attacked by the disease. A white man is suffering with the plague at Woodstock.

CUBAN RELATIONS.

Important Amendment to Be Offered To Army Appropriation Bill.

Washington, Feb. 25.—The senate committee on relations with Cuba met to consider a proposed amendment to the army appropriation bill providing for the disposition of Cuban affairs. The proposition was prepared by the Republican members of the committee and is said to be satisfactory to most of them. There is yet some question whether the amendment is satisfactory to the president.

The proposed amendment recites the so-called Teller amendment to the Spanish war resolution and then gives the president authority to withdraw the troops from Cuba, when in his judgment the provisions of the Teller amendment are realized.

Carrie Wants Out.

Topeka, Feb. 25.—Mrs. Carrie Nation, tiring of jail life, has written Judge Hazen a letter demanding release. "I want you to quit your fooling," she writes, "and let me out of here. If you cause me to miss my engagements, I won't feel like a ministering angel unto you. You know you are persecuting one of God's children. Let me out that I may go about my business of saving such poor devils as you." Judge Hazen has ignored the letter. Letters have been received from all parts of the country threatening the judge.

Versailles, Ind., Feb. 25.—The home of George James, four miles from here, was destroyed by fire. James and his four daughters were burned to death. Mrs. James and another son were absent from home.

OUR OPPORTUNITY.

Maysville's Splendid Advantages
As a Location For Tobacco
Factories

Should Be Seized By People of City and County—Speeches By Messrs. Mc-
Cartney and Kehoe.

Below is given a stenographic report of the speeches delivered by Hon. John P. McCartney and Congressman-elect Kehoe at the tobacco fair Friday. Both speakers brought out the advantages offered by Maysville as a location for tobacco factories, and we are glad to be able to give the speeches in full:

MR. MCCARTNEY'S ADDRESS OF WELCOME.

Ladies and Gentlemen: It is indeed a pleasure to represent the people of Maysville in tendering a welcome to this magnificent body. It is ever a pleasure to a Kentuckian to welcome the stranger within his gates, but that pleasure is greatly enhanced on this occasion to him by the ties of friendship and the bonds of commercial intercourse.

The man who started this tobacco fair builded better than he knew, for in the presence of this audience it is easy to see that the dignity which properly belongs to the soil is once more understood by the people. The nineteenth century was a century of a rush to the city from the farm. The boy on the farm was lured to the city by the hope of amassing a fortune. But the twentieth century has done much to restore to the people the dignity which belongs to this occupation. It is the real life of the people of this land. It is said by someone who understood men that the history of the average Kentuckian may be told in a few words. He was born amid the blue grass meadows, and ran wild with the dogs and horses; that when he had acquired his education, he drifted to the city where much of the best part of his life was wasted in the pursuit of wealth, and finally he came back to end his days amid the blue grass meadows and the trees of the forests. And so it is that dignity is added to us when we bring the product of the farm here to show the people an evidence of what can be done in this Blue Grass land. It is fitting that you should be gathered on the day that the American public set apart with special pride, as it is in celebration of one who added dignity to this nation and who was as much of a man in the quiet fields of Mount Vernon as in the Capital City. I am sure that if Washington were alive to-day, he would say to you as I say that there is nothing better in all this wide world than to be a farmer in this Commonwealth. But regardless of whatever others say, it is fitting that we come to-day for the purpose of holding a tobacco fair and to exhibit the weed which Washington grew on his broad and fertile acres; and not a fair where agricultural products are side-tracked by race horses.

This is the age of opportunity and if a man reaches out he may grasp it if he will. You hear young men say I will leave Kentucky and go to Florida to raise oranges, or I will go to California to grow olives, which will compete with those of Spain. Again we hear them say, I will go South and grow up with the cotton business. Why not seize the opportunities which lie dormant in his land of ours? A man will grow old and gray hunting for an opportunity, only to find at last that it lay at his door. We know that when the South was down, that the cotton was shipped to the New England mills; we know that the iron and coal lay undeveloped. Now we behold Birmingham sprung up like a vision in the night in Alabama and cotton mills have been built up in the fields of the South until the sceptre has been transferred from New England to the New South.

You see to-day the white burley grown right here in our own fields shipped to St. Louis and Philadelphia. I have no doubt there are tobacco growers right here in Kentucky who chew their own tobacco which is made up five hundred miles from here, who could have it manufactured at their doors. And so it is that here to-day the opportunity which came to them rests at your doors, and in bringing manufacturing home to the South, why should we not in this white burley district of ours let the product be worked up in our own domain? These are practical things, and this is a practical age; and as my fellow citizens, while we are gathered together, let us use our heads together; and while we wonder at the wealth accumulated by others let us remember that the opportunity lies at our door. You are the controllers of your own destiny. Now, as you are gathered together, let us remember that as the people take up these matters, they will stand alike for the interest of the townsman and the interests of the countrymen.

My fellow citizens, Maysville is glad to have you with her; Mason County and all the surrounding counties are bound together by mutual interest. I believe in all candor that when a man takes a prize on his tobacco, it will be the means of improving his crop the next year, and I believe that by mutual competition the people here shall receive benefit from this annual gathering. I am glad on behalf of the people of Maysville to welcome you to this city and to say to you that the doors of the city are open to you and that we hope you will derive both profit and pleasure from this occasion, and with your recollections of it, may there also be mingled kind thoughts of the pleasant hill-bound city and of the hospitable people who dwell therein.

MR. KEHOE'S SPEECH.

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen: Compliments have been passed, views exchanged, ribbons tied, all of which are enjoyable, but what we may think of one another, what an individual may think of the best way to produce a good crop is not the question. What you are concerned about, the chief purpose of this assembly as I understand is to devise some way to improve the prices which the grower is receiving for tobacco. It is conceded on every hand that he is not receiving proper compensation for the labor he gives, and the character of the soil that is required for it. This is not due to the fact that you are not growing as good a crop as heretofore. It is not due to the fact that the manufacturer is not selling as much as formerly. It is conceded by everybody that no man can raise a crop of tobacco and sell it at from 4 to 6 cents and find money in his pocket at the end of the year. Your tobacco sells at from 4 to 7 cents, averaging not more than 6 cents. The manufactured article sells at from 40 to 70 cents. This is the result of the commercial conditions, the outcome of which many saw months ago. People may differ about what has produced it. All these gentlemen have referred to the trusts as the cause of it. I don't care to-day to talk anything to you but business. You may talk against trusts, you may win premiums, you may exchange compliments, but if you want to let better prices for your tobacco, you must get down to business. You need more factories to manufacture it. Every manufactory which starts to manufacture plug tobacco will bring more buyers into the field. The city of Maysville by nature is the capital of the white burley district of this country. It offers to you the chance to give a new market for all of this territory. I know that other cities have grown faster than we have, but if you want to invest your money in a paying business you don't want it invested in the most rapid place, but you want it where the people are generous, just and honest, and a better community to conduct a manufacturing business could not be found than this. Now if we are going to have a factory, my friends, it means money put up—that is what you have got to do. Some people believe in waiting for opportunities, letting things force themselves. I believe you can create an opportunity. I don't like the idea of complaining and croaking. I like the idea of doing something. You remember the story of the frogs that got into the milk can. The uneven movement of the wagon, made it a difficult matter to swim. One frog gave it up, croaked and was drowned. The other kept paddling and finally accomplished through his exertions the churning of a pound of butter, climbed on it and so rode merrily into town. Nothing, my friends, can be accomplished by giving up and croaking. Put a tobacco factory in this city and we will buy the products of this county; no trouble on earth about selling it. Everybody knows the trust is making money. How are you going to do it? There are two ways. Invite capital and aid it by offering inducements. This city is ready and I believe the people are ready to offer the inducements to the people who will engage in this business.

If you people will subscribe your name, if you people who want a market to sell your product, if you will put down your name, if we can raise $10,000 and say to some special men who have that much money to invest, "Come here to Maysville and start a factory and we will let you have this money for five years without interest, we will give you the plant and space for the plant, taxation free, for five years." Let them put their $25,000 into the equipping of the plant, putting in the machinery. Then give them this $10,000 to carry on their business for the next sixty or ninety days until they get on their feet and their sales commence to bring them in money. But you say, "Why, I may lose it." Yes, you may lose it. If you put it up you take the chances; otherwise you take the chance if you do subscribe of getting it back, and if you don't, you have the certainty of losing it. There is another way that it can be done. Let's organize it ourselves. Let's subscribe our own money, pick out our own people. Let's raise the money right here in Mason County, putting the shares at $50, and no man allowed to take more than ten shares, so that it cannot be controlled by any few, but be the people's factory. The trust can control the tobacco market, because you let it. It cannot keep you from organizing an independent tobacco factory. I believe, and honestly believe, that every man who contributes a dollar to it is bound to be benefited by it. If he lives in this community he will be benefited by it, even if he don't raise any tobacco. Maysville has the best chance of organizing a paying tobacco factory of any place in the country. You can take your breakfast in Maysville and your supper in Chicago or St. Louis. You can leave here at midnight and reach the Capital by noon to-morrow. We are only one and one half hours' run from Cincinnati. We are within 350 miles of the center of population in this great country. No community has better mail facilities than we have. Letters can Take a cup of Arbuckles' Coffee and a cup of the "cent-a-pound-cheaper" kind. One taste of each will prove to you that the reason Arbuckles' costs a little more is because it's worth more. It's selected with greater pains, roasted with greater care, packed with greater skill. It comes to you as fresh as when it left the roaster. Not a particle of its strength or flavor lost. Cheap coffee lacks both strength and flavor.

ARBUCKLES' Roasted Coffee

is cheaper in the end than other coffees because it makes more cupfuls to the pound and gives far greater satisfaction.

With each package of Arbuckles' Coffee you purchase a definite part of some useful article—which is yours on presentation to our Notion Dept. of a certain number of signatures cut from the wrappers. You'll find a list of the articles in each package.

THE BEE HIVE

Important Announcement....

We desire to inform the people of Maysville, Mason County and vicinity that we have purchased from Messrs. Rosenau Bros. their Maysville store so long and well known as "THE BEE HIVE." It is our intention to run this business in the same progressive way as our predecessors, and respectfully ask for your continued patronage. Watch this space for special announcement in Wednesday's paper.

MERZ BROTHERS.

To Our Many Friends: As Above stated, we have sold to the Messrs. Merz Bros. our Maysville business. We desire to extend to our many friends sincere thanks for their liberal patronage in the past and would bespeak for our successors a continuance of your good will and consideration.

ROSENAU BROS.

THE BEE HIVE.

Merz Bros. Succeed Rosenau Bros. as Proprietors of this Popular Dry Goods House.

The firm of Rosenau Bros., who have conducted the large, well known dry goods store known as the Bee Hive ever since its establishment in Maysville, sold their interest and good will in the house Saturday to Messrs. A. L. Millard and Eugene Merz, of Philadelphia, who take possession at once, and who will continue the business in its present commodious quarters under the firm name of Merz Bros.

The new owners of the Bee Hive are men of large experience in the business, and the patrons of the house, as well as the public generally, will we feel extend to them a most cordial welcome.

Mr. A. L. Merz, the senior member of the firm, has for many years conducted a large dry goods house at West Point, Ga., and this establishment will be continued at that place.

Mr. Perry Frankel, who has been in charge of the Bee Hive of late years, will, with his wife and children, take his departure for Philadelphia in a few days, where he goes to engage in the manufacturing business with the Rosenau Bros. There is universal regret at the departure of this most excellent family from Maysville, and the sincerest good wishes of their large circle of friends will follow them in their new home.

PEACEFULLY SHE SLEEPS.

The Visit of the Death Angel Saddens Another Home—Miss Emma Young Passes Into Rest.

The sad news was not unexpected, as the friends of this good woman knew for days that she had been lingering at that door which opens on a brighter and more glorious life for all such as she. Gently, as in a peaceful sleep, she passed to the life beyond.

Miss Young was a daughter of Mrs. Catherine and the late Jerre F. Young, and was forty-seven years old. Her life was spent in this city where it can be truly said "none knew her but to love her." She is survived by her mother, one sister, Miss Bettie, and a brother, Charles.

The funeral will take place at St. Patrick's Church Tuesday at 9 a. m., Rev. A. T. Ennis officiating. Interment by the side of her father in the Maysville Cemetery.

The first of a series of Sunday night lectures was delivered by Rev. Father Ennis at St. Patrick's Church last night. "The Existence of God" was his subject. Will Boom His Business.

S. Laval, a merchant, of Dallas, Tex., writes: "I thought I would have to give up business, after two years' of suffering from general debility brought on by overwork and long hours, but four bottles of Electric Bitters gave me new life. I can now eat anything, sleep well and feel like working all the time. It's the best medicine on earth." It's a wonderful tonic and health builder for tired, weak, sickly and run-down people. Try it. Satisfaction guaranteed. Only 50c. at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store.

SHOT HIMSELF.

Mr. James Sartain, of Near Plumville, Committed Suicide Saturday Morning While Temporarily Deranged.

Mr. James Sartain, aged about fifty-five years, committed suicide at 1 o'clock Saturday morning by shooting himself at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. Rogers, near Plumville.

Mr. Sartain's wife died some years ago, and he had been living with Mr. Rogers. He suffered a partial derangement of the mind some time back, and of late these mental troubles had reappeared. Saturday morning, while the older members of Mr. Rogers' family were absent from the room Mr. Sartain got a gun and stepping out the door he shot himself through the heart, death resulting almost instantly.

Coroner Wood was notified and held an inquest, the verdict being in accordance with the above facts.

Mr. Sartain leaves several grown children. The funeral took place Sunday at Plumville, the burial following in the cemetery at that point.

The entertainment Saturday afternoon at opera house by about 100 pupils of the first four grades of district school No. 3 was a very enjoyable affair, the little folks acquitting themselves in a manner highly creditable alike to themselves and their faithful teachers, Misses Eleanor Wallace and Sallie Burrows. There were cane drills, hoop drills, doll drills, witch drills, recitations, &c., &c., interspersed with vocal solos by Misses Edith Berry and Henrietta Davis, and selections on the violin and piano by Misses Stella Archdeacon and Grace Redmond, these four kindly volunteering their assistance. The large audience was an appreciative one. The entertainment will net from $15 to $20 for the Y. M. C. A.

D HECHINGER & CO.

We were correct when we said a while since that we did not intend having dull January and February business. To be sure, there is no profit, in fact in many instances there are losses on our sales; but we have always had a great weakness to close out one season's stock before the next season comes in, hence

OUR STOCK IS ALWAYS FRESH AND NEW!

There still must be a good many people who have not availed themselves of securing "our kind" of Clothing at the cut prices we are now selling at. Why not come in and buy an Ulster or Overcoat at a price that will of the money you will have to pay for it next winter? What an excellent opportunity now to buy a Stein-Bloch or Adler Suit, medium weight, one that you can wear nine months out of the twelve, and buy it for less money than you buy ordinary goods for. We will be benefitted in turning these goods into money, in buying them. Were we addicted to fake advertising, that so many Clothing men resort to, viz: the fellows who advertise $10 Suits for $3.98, we would embellish more. The truth needs no embellishment; you know we only advertise and sell "straight goods."

BUT YOU WILL BE VASTLY MORE BENEFITTED

And all kindred complaints, due to an excess of uric acid in the blood. It accomplishes its wonderful results first, by purifying the blood and counteracting the existing poisons; second, by toning up the kidneys, liver and stomach, and thus enabling them to dispel all foreign and unnatural secretions. Don't delay. At this time of the year everything is conducive to these distressing and treacherous diseases. At the first symptoms take this famous medicine. You will find it almost miraculous in its action and positive in its good results.
